You will be able to self-motivate and keep a calm head under pressure.

As Sous Chef you will have the necessary culinary skills to work within a very busy and challenging kitchen. You will be responsible for the success and progress of a high volume quality food operation, which includes a busy bar & restaurant along with corporate and private functions including a high level of wedding business.

Key responsibilities of the role include;

- To be in charge of a section of the kitchen
- To assist in managing and achieving key financial targets
- Work with Head Chef and the kitchen brigade to develop menus
- To ensure 100% compliance with all legislative guidelines and requirements
- Hold relevant Chef Qualifications and a minimum Basic Food Hygiene certificate
- To assist in recruiting the best brigade members and develop them to reach potential.
- Aiming and achieving first class customer reviews, and working with the Head Chef to improve shortfalls in this area/
- Ensuring effective methods of communication both within the kitchen brigade and to the management and FOH teams.

The job role is 5 days out of 7 and will include weekends. Hours to suit the demands of the business.
